

WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, TRADE AND CONSUMER PROTECTION

Hosted Sessions

AT WORLD DAIRY EXPO 2025

IN COLLABORATION WITH

| National Association of Animal Breeders | Livestock Exporters Association |

Beyond the Barn: How U.S. Dairy Genetics Leads the World

Thursday, October 2, 8 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

LOCATION: MENDOTA ROOM 3

8:15 a.m. Opening Remarks

8:30 a.m. Doing Business with Americans

9:25 a.m. Strength of U.S. Animal Health Programs

10:30 a.m. The U.S. Advantage: Genetics Powered by Diverse Environments

11:25 a.m. Sharpening The U.S. Genetics Edge: What Dairy Can Learn from Other Sectors

Registration Link

Livestock & Genetics Networking Event

Thursday, October 2, 12:30 p.m. - 3 p.m.

LOCATION: MENDOTA ROOM 3

International Buyers:
SCAN THIS QR CODE

Buyer Form

Event features prearranged, one-on-one meetings connecting qualified international buyers with leading U.S. suppliers of livestock, genetics, and embryos.

Build lasting connections, explore innovative breeding solutions, and open doors to new international trade opportunities.

All applications will be reviewed to ensure event is efficient and effective.

U.S. Suppliers:
SCAN THIS QR CODE

Supplier Form

CONTACTS

P-DAD124 (08/25)

Richard Paullin

Executive Director

Livestock Exporters Association

rpaulin@livestockexportusa.com

Jacob Leum

International Economic Development Consultant

Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade &
Consumer Protection

jacob.leum@wisconsin.gov

Sophie Eaglen

International Program Director

National Association of Animal Breeders

seaglen@naab-css.org